

March 4, 2015
Board of Agriculture Update
Consumer Equitability Division
Bart O'Toole, Administrator

Metrologist

CE hired a new Metrologist, Mary Gonzales, she has completed half of her required NIST training and will finish in mid-March. At the completion of the training she will start her certification process as well as the recertification process for the lab. Once complete, our standards will need to be sent off to recertify them. We should have a full functional Echelon III lab by September.